

Application for:

TEN LESSONS FOR THE STORYBOARD ARTIST AND FILMMAKER

This is a student driven online workshop. Upon acceptance each student will receive one lesson at a time. Assignments must be submitted or completed to receive the next lesson. There will be video demos, interviews and lectures. The student must have access to a computer, scanner, E-mail and be familiar with operation of a video camera. No submission of video material is required. Students must have had basic art lessons. The student is entitled to one-on-one Skype videoconferencing and e-mail directly with the instructor David J. Negron Jr. Students interested must apply for the workshop by completing the application form and submitting three storyboard frames that best shows their ability to communicate through drawing. Storyboards submitted must be no larger than 500k jpg and submitted with the PDF application. Cost for the workshop is $325.00US for ten lessons.

This course promises a learning experience like no other. The ability to draw is a life long process that is constantly improving your skills. Your individual style will evolve as you do as an artist. By applying for this workshop, your information will be reviewed, when selected you will then receive a payment invoice. Payment must be received before session date is to begin. There is no refund.

We at Goliath Pictures look forward to meeting you and seeing your work progress with this workshop.

Student's Name: _____
Address, City, State Zip
Email:
Scype:
Age:
Student's Education:

Please answer the following questions (paste into a word doc):

What to you expect to gain from this workshop?

What has made you decide to apply for this workshop?

What are your thoughts as an artist or film-maker in regards to visuals as a tool?

Please email .pdf word .doc and .jpeg to info@goliathpictures.com

Goliath Pictures 16313 Clark Ave Bellflower, CA 90706 (562) 920-7004